

Generations of artists and art lovers have called Las Vegas home and drawn visitors from around the world. The Las Vegas Arts Council's mission preserves, protects, and promotes the culture that encourages them all.

In a new partnership with the Historic Plaza Hotel, we are proud to present the extraordinary work of one of our local artists here, on this corridor, and celebrate the arts and culture of our community with you. Every available area of the Plaza Hotel is an opportunity to experience the best Las Vegas has to offer, and we welcome you.

Less than a block away, our Gallery 140 (140 Bridge Street) has a revolving exhibit of local artists as well. Around the Plaza, down Bridge Street and beyond, there are more galleries, shops, restaurants, historic home, a museum, the Visitor's Center at the Train Depot, and more, as well as the finest, friendliest community on the planet.

Take a stroll, and experience new adventures down old trails.

