

Sharon Vander Meer • www.oneroofpublish.com • fsvandermeer@gmail.com

Dear Friends and Neighbors:

On my website, One Roof Publishing, I am featuring local folks in a series of question and answer articles similar to this one with Elmo Baca about his Indigo Theater. I've also done several about writers in my network and one with Charlotte Moore about the renovation at Dick's. I plan to have one or two of these each week as soon as I can get the ball rolling, meaning having people who want to participate. I hope that will be you 😊.

Whether you are an artist, musician, gallery owner or other small business owner, I would like to feature you. The way it works is that I send you 8 to 12 questions and you send me your responses. I try to personalize the questions based on what I know about you. If I don't know you I may begin with a preliminary call or visit to get some background. In the Q&A I use your responses as submitted.

I also ask you to send me a photo. It can be of you or your art work or your crew or your band or your... well, you get the picture. And if you don't have one – a picture I mean – call me and I'll come and take one.

Publication will be based on first come first served, so please get your name in as soon as you can. What do you get out of it? Free publicity. What do I get out of it? Interesting content for One Roof Publishing.

What I need from you to get started is:

- Your name
- Your phone or cell number
- Your e-mail
- URL to your online presence

Send to me at fsvandermeer@gmail.com. In the subject line enter One Roof Q&A.

Thanks for your interest and participation. Please contact me soon and get the ball rolling your direction.

Sharon